In this activity, students explore what makes a happy classroom community, focusing on the characteristics that make everyone feel like they belong.

- 1 Give each student a We All Belong in Class graphic organizer.
- 2 Ask students to think about their experiences in class.
 - What does a classroom where everyone belongs look like (e.g. students getting along)?
 - What does a class where everyone belongs sound like (e.g. friendly chatter)?
 - What does a class where everyone belongs feel like (e.g. safe and welcoming)?
- 3 Instruct students to draw or write their ideas about what a class where everyone belongs should look, sound, and feel like in the spaces provided on the graphic organizer.
- 4 Encourage students to identify ways they can help other students feel like they belong to their class.

Message for students: From a big country to a small classroom, to make a community work, it's important to respect differences. Every student and adult has a role to play in making sure everyone feels like they belong.
